

We all have things lurking at the back of our wardrobe which we have never worn, or have perhaps worn only once or twice. They may well have seemed like items to die for at the time, but now you want to buy something new—So why not let Polka Dot Paradise help you turn these unwanted items into cash by finding them a new, appreciative owner?

Some dress agencies try to make the process complicated and exclusive. We want to welcome everyone to Polka Dot Paradise and we accept women's, men's and children's clothes, handbags, shoes and accessories and we only charge a 40% commission !!

We will take anything that our customers will think is desirable. Brands such as Karen Millen, Paul Smith , Diesel, Victoria Beckham and Jimmy Choo always sell well, but equally, funky high street brands like River Island and Oasis are always in demand.
